THE TERMS OF THE Czar.

HE WILL PROTECT BULGARIA IN RETURN FOR FULL CONFIDENCE.

It is Necessary to Release All Political

Prisoners, to Raise the State of Siege and to Allow All Parties to Vote Freely and Independently—Foreign Notes.

SOPHIA, Sept. 28.—Gen. Kaulbars, in thanking Zankoff and his friends for their kindly welcome, asked them to announce throughout the country that the czar would give protection to Bulgaria on condition that full confidence be placed in him. The ills of Bulgaria, Gen. Kaulbars said, arose from dissension between the different parties, and it was necessary to have a general assembly of the political parties, to raise the state of siege, to allow all parties to vote freely and independently in the Great Sborov.

Minister Natchevitch visited Gen. Kaulbars, and said that he would attend a meeting of the Muscovite officers to be held at the residence of the Minister of War.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 23, 1886.

The next national conclave of Odd-fellows will be held at Columbus, Ohio, a year from this month.

At Lexington, Lute Fogle was held to trial in the sum of $1,000 to answer the charge of killing Lynch O'Connor.

GENERAL W. H. F. LEE has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats in the Eight Virginia district. He is a son of the late General Robert E. Lee, and a graduate of West Point.

THE Louisiana orange crop is a failure and the outlook for next year is discouraging to the Southern growers. The failure was caused by the damage to the trees from the hard frosts last spring.

The Democrats of Ohio have invited Secretary of State, James A. McKenzie, to come over and help them in the present campaign. If the Ohio Democrats are in need of oratory, they can't come to a better State to find it.

At Cynthiana the other day, Wm. Landrum, a farmer who resided near Robertson Station, Ky., died from a fracture of the skull, the result of a quarrel with James W. Keller. Keller is said to have struck the blow in self-defense.

In the Circuit Court at Carlisle the grand jury has indicted Charles P. Royce for murder and his brother, Solomon Royce, for aiding and abetting him in the crime. They are charged with shooting and killing a negro man at their home near that place several weeks ago. Stanton Bannister, who killed his man at the last August election in one of the country precincts of Nicholas was indicted for manslaughter. Bannister died after the killing and is still at large. Four indictments were returned against James Connors for selling liquor without license, and four against A. J. Banta for the same offense.

District School Houses.

Editor Bulletin.—The question as to the day of the year when a new school house is frequently asked, and for their information and that of the general public, I would like through the medium of your columns to say a few words. "Whenever the County Superintendent notifies the trustees that the new school house has been erected, needs repairing, or when in any case it becomes necessary to build a new school house, then the trustees shall order a per capita tax, not exceeding $1 on each male in the district over twenty one years of age, which may be paid in cash, or in scrip, or in labor, or in any other way, on each $100 worth of taxable property in the district, to be collected as similar State taxes are; and such tax shall be applied to repairing or to the purchase of a site and the erection of a new school house, and shall be apportioned to the wants of said district."—School law, article vii, section 7.

By the former law, this question of taxation was submitted to the voters, but under the law passed by the last Legislature, it is left to the trustees.

Those who fail or neglect to perform the duties imposed by the above law, are liable to a fine of not less than $25, nor more than $100, to be recovered by indictment before the grand jury. So that it is not a matter of choice with the trustees—they are compelled to do this tax. They only want to escape it to make the money to build school houses where they are needed by subscription.

L. W. GALBRAITH,
County Superintendent.

RICHMOND CONVENTION.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR MEETING AT RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

Preparations All Complete for the Great Labor Event of October 4—Accommodation in the Hall for Twenty Thousand Lodging Guests.—Colored Knights, Richmond, Va., Sept. 28.—The labor convention which meets here October 4 will probably be one of the most important gatherings in the interest of labor which has taken place for years. It is estimated that the congress will comprise 1,000 representatives chosen for their ability and fitness to discuss the measures proposed for their consideration.

A very important matter will be the election of general officers, and in all probability the election of a national president will be decided. The congress is virtually labor's legislative and executive body. The matters to be passed upon are awakening much attention, and the outlook warrants the statement that questions of vital interest will be decided.

The local committee of Knights of Labor, charged with arranging for the comforts of the members of the convention, say they have about completed their plans. They will hold a grand picnic on Saturday night in the largest buildings of the kind here. Arrangements have been made for seating accommodations for 2,000 persons. There will be no stage or stand. The speakers will address the crowd from the floor.

The accommodations are not as good as might be, but this will be remedied as far as possible by the use of sounding boards. Governor Lee will welcome the members of the National convention to Virginia. Mr. Evans will reply. There will be a number of colored speakers at the convention, and among the number several women. One of the latter will represent a colored female assembly of this city, it is said.

At the Cleveland meeting the only colored representative on the floor was from this city, and he was the only colored member of 1,000 and 9,000 members of the order in Richmond and its immediate vicinity. Of this number the colored knights are largely in the majority.

Mr. W. H. Matson, the master workman of this district, who has been an active organizer of the order in this section, is the labor candidate for Congress in this district. His only opponent at present is the Hon. George B. Smith, of the Democratic party. The Republicans have called a convention to meet here on October 3, to determine whether or not the party shall nominate a candidate. "If the Republicans do not nominate a candidate," said Mr. Matson, "I shall beat Wise by 3,000 to 4,000." The Republican leaders are not uniform upon what they consider to be the best to pursue in this condition of affairs."

DEMORALIZED INDIANS

The Condition of the Indians of the Northwest Caused by Too Much Whisky.

PAUL MUNN, Sept. 29.—Wright and Evans, of the Indian Commission, which has been arranging treaties with the Indians of the northwest, are in the city for a few days. They report a most determined effort on the part of the men interested in the sale of whisky to Indians to pervert them to the use of it, and to convert them into vagabonds. It is to be hoped that the Indians will be kept outside of reservations and open to the advances of the whites, they can be led to part with the money they make by the sale of rice and tobacco for whisky.

At White Oak Point the Indians were found in a most demoralized condition and entirely robbed of the means of subsistence, that died of disease. The men seem to be lost in moral sense, and the women were mere articles of merchandise.

It is said by the commissioners that there are many instances where girls as good as sold to white men, and turned drifts with tiny babies in their arms and other girls taken in their places.

Wiggins Talk.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 29.—Professor Wiggins is now on his way to the west, he has been misrepresented by American newspapers. He denies that he ever related to the trustees of the chapter of horrors which has been given as incidental to the fulfillment of his prediction that the world would end in 1888.

The professor said to a reporter, Saturday, "that earthquake forces would be to the south of the thirtieth parallel of latitude, I never ventured any predictions regarding the destructive nature of the storm on that parallel at all."

MERICAN MARAUDER.

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 29.—Four Mexican Indians have been captured and are now in the custody of their comrades and were led by Marcial Berardino, interrupted a dance at the house of an American, near here, and after a fight succeeding in carrying off the wife of the proprietor. The two pursued, and after a narrow contest, captured, and carried off.

The others escaped. It is understood that the kidnapping was done for the benefit of Berardino, who is said to have been a rejected suitor of the woman.

RECEIVER for the Charter Oak.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A motion will be made in Newark for the appointment of a receiver for the Charter Oak Life Insurance company, recently managed by Bartholomew, the defaulter. Mr. W. W. Green will appear for the Charter Oak company.

Mr. Charles Alexander, of the firm of Alexander & Green, said, "It is a striking fact that in about two or three years the Bartholomew has infested the paper of the Charter Oak company for $400,000 or $500,000."

RECEIVER for the Moon.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Atlanta, Ga., says that citizens there say they have seen for the past three nights blood lines on the face of the moon and that the lines are the result of the subject of general comment. The negroes, the dispossessed say, except it as the fulfillment of the prophecy that there shall be signs in the heavens before the end of the world, which event they now say will take place on the 30th.

TRADE for the Songoline.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—Steps are about to be taken looking to the promotion of the parties who circulated the bogus report concerning a new fishery treaty. The offense is indubitable, and in consequence of the numerous impositions practiced lately it seems that the injury is to be put an end to.

HOG Chasers.

ELKHORN, Sept. 29.—Hog chasers, which is a science in itself, this locality has made its appearance in several parts of the country with disastrous effects. Whenever it attacks, the symptoms assume an aggravated form, and known remedies have but little success.

SHOOTING for the family of your city, spend Sunday Woodland place.

An exchange is authority for the statement that, "During the life of the steamer Louise, formerly in the Marietta and Charleston trade, now of the Portsmouth and Huntington trade, seventeen people have fallen overboard, of whom sixteen have drowned. One only has been saved, and that through the prompt action of the mate, Thomas Blackburn of Gallipolis."

WHILE in St. Louis last week Captain Tudor presented a snare-drum to his son, George, which for finish and tone far surpasses anything in that line ever brought to this city or this section of the State. It is known as the duplex drum, lately patented, and is finished in heavy silver plate. For clearness of tone, it is not equalled by any other make. It can be seen for a few days in the window display at Ballenger's jewelry store.

Shockley Fatally Shot.

Sol Shockley, formerly of this city, was shot by a man named Coakley at Merced, California, on the night of September 18. The shooting occurred at a political meeting, and resulted in the wounding of three persons besides Shockley. The Argus, of that city, says: "Shockley and Coakley have both been known to figure prominently in several altercations, and the quarrel between them which led to their fight and the subsequent shooting, was caused by a disagreement about politics." Shockley's wounds are in the stomach, and are considered fatal.

PADDY PARKS had his examining trial yesterday before Squier Grant on the charge of grand larceny. The Commonwealth was represented by County Attorney Charles D. Newell, and the defendant by L. W. Galtraith. The proof in the case was substantially as stated yesterday. Case, who preferred the charge, had slept in the same room with Parks one night last week, and the next day had missed his money—$15.00. He placed the matter in the hands of the city officers, and Parks was arrested Saturday in the hold of the Benton McMillen. Part of the money was found on his person, and it was shown that he had bought several articles of clothing a few days ago. Parks was held to answer the charge in the Circuit Court, and was sent to jail in default of $100 bail.

"Five-Fifteen-Twenty-Two."

The following members of the Mayville Commandery No. 10, K. T.—known throughout the country as the "Five-Fifteen-Twenty-Two," of this city—attended the triennial concave at St. Louis last week: Colonel F. S. Owens, P. E. C.; Judge W. P. Coons, P. E. C.; S. S. Riley, P. E. C.; J. W. Watson, P. E. C.; E. A. Robinson, E. C.; R. L. Browning, G.; S. C. Bradford, C. G.; W. C. Miner, J. R. Ford, J. W. Dameron, C. B. Pearce, Jr., G. T. Simonds, J. K. Lloyd, E. P. Wheeler, L. Hirsch, H. H. Branning, Dr. Stevenson, J. C. Losen. They have returned and report a glorious time from the hour of their arrival on the scene until they took their departure ones more for their "old Kentucky home." They acquitted themselves in admirable style, and speak in glowing terms of the courtesy they met with, and of the courteous treatment shown them. They were accompanied by Haucke's Reed and Brass Band, who took part in the monster concert lead by Gilmore, of New York. The concert and drill for the benefit of the widows and orphans was a grand affair, and netted fully $100,000. The many compliments paid the Sir Knights and the band, are best told in the following which we clip from the St. Louis Republican, of the 23rd and 24th instant:

"The Knights of California Commandery No. 1, have brought along with them a little silver barrel which holds about two gallons of the best whisky that can be found on the Pacific slope. The barrel was presented to the Commandery by Mayville Commandery of Mayville, Ky., at the Chicago triennial concave in 1860. In 1877, at the Cleveland concave, Mayville Commandery made its first appearance. At home it had a good organization of wealthy men, but when the Cleveland concave drew near it was found that only five of the Knights were willing to go, Col. F. S. Owens, Horace January, Major Thomas W. Mannen, Sam S. Riley and E. A. Robinson. These five took to Cleveland a brass band of fifteen men and twenty-two gallons demijohn of whisky. When they got to Cleveland they kept open house in true Kentucky style, and before they left they were known among the Knights as the 'Five, Fifteen and Twenty-two Commandery.' The five Knights took the nick-name readily, and when they appeared at the Chicago concave they had their badges printed with a design explanatory of their new title. The bulge is blue. At the top rests a shield on four crossed swords and in their center the figure '5'. Below is a corset enwrapped in 'Fifteen' and under that are the figures '22' in a demijohn. 'Old Kaintuck' appears below. Thirty-five of the Mayville Knights are present at this concave.

"Colonel Pat Gilmore and Alessandro Liberati, the corset player, are both highly attached to the Haucke Cornell Band which accompanies the '15-22' Commandery of Mayville, Ky., Gilmore's musicians were entertained Wednesday night by the band in the Commandery headquarters at the Southern, and Gilmore has promised to write a song dedicated to the three numbers. Liberati has shown his affection for one musician of the band, J. I. Mathews, in a very substantial way, having presented to him a golden, diamond-studded corset valued at $4,000, which he received from the people of New Orleans in 1873.

"These Kentuckians received and handsomely entertained a dozen Commanders Wednesday, and at night they donned their dress uniforms and called upon Ascalon, Cincinnati, No. 3, Raper and Hanseman Commanderies. Past Eminent Commander F. S. Owens went back to Mayville yesterday, but all the others will take part in the parade to-day, and will leave to-morrow morning.

"The silver barrel presented by the Commander to the California Commandery, No. 11, in headquarters of the coast Commandery at the Armory. The barrel is attached by a concealed pipe to a genuine whisky cask, and while it holds only two gallons itself, forty-two gallons of whisky have been already run through it.

"The Kentuckians have not yet taken their drinks from it, but they intend to call upon the Californians to-day, before the parade, for that purpose.

"The Mayville (Ky.) band escorted the celebrated 5-15-22 Commandery to the grounds, and rendered many choice Southern airs. While passing the grand stand the band played 'Dixie,' and received round after round of applause.

"California badges sold for 50 cents, badges of the Five-Fifteen-Twenty-Two, twenty couldn't be had for love or money."

"Rev. George Coons, of St. Louis, is the oldest Knight of the Mayville, Ky., Commandery, and in recognition of this the Commandery marched out to his house, 2020 Olive street, serenaded and then formally called upon him.

"Tancered Commandery, No. 25, of Moberly, Mo., furnished an escort to the Tennessee Commandery last night, and the two started to visit the Commandery of Maryville, Cal. They started, but blundered into the rooms of the Mayville Commandery of Kentucky, where before they discovered their mistake, they were received with a speech by P. E. G. W. P. Coons, and entertained in true Kentucky style.

"T. F. Ellis, of St. Louis, devoted the entire week to playing the cicerone for his former fellow-citizens, the Mayville, Ky., Knights, and was given a vote of thanks by them."

Death of Mrs. Judge Sumrall.

A special from Danville, Ky., of the 24th inst, says: "Mrs. Bebbie M. Sumrall, wife of Judge J. K. Sumrall, died this evening at 3:30 o'clock, at the family residence, in this county, of heart trouble. She had been in rather delicate health for a year past, and while spending the summer at Chautauqua was prostrated with the disease which ultimately caused her death. Her last illness began about a week ago, and became so violent that her condition had been regarded as almost hopeless for several days. People who left Danville years ago will remember her as Miss Bessie Moore. Much of the remarkable beauty and all the grace of her girlhood days remained with her to the end. She was a daughter of the late Colins Moore. Her aged mother, her husband, two sons, and a little daughter survive her. Funeral at the family residence at 10 o'clock Sunday morning."

"Dreadful Drowning."

The languishing Cincinnati sunlight was the scene of a terrible accident, resulting in the drowning of two men whose names are yet unknown: The first unfortunate walked into the river from the Big Sandy wharf about half-past ten o'clock while attempting to board the St. Lawrence which left there at twelve o'clock for this place, and ten minutes later a second splash was heard. The crew and passengers did all they could in the dim light to rescue the parties, but the two were drawn under the steamer, and drowned. The Enquirer in speaking of the occurrence says: "A feeling of horror pervaded the group of men who congregated on the boat and on the forward deck, and an investigation soon disclosed the cause of the terrible accident. Between the bow of the steamer and the wharf-boat was an opening into the water of about ten or twelve feet. The gangplank was some distance below this place, and the only light on the wharf was that on the gangway. The light under the stairway leading to the upper deck threw a shadow into the wharf-boat and led the two unfortunate men to think they could walk on the steamer at the front.

There was no light at the open doorway, or the drowning could not have happened. After the second unknown had stepped into the river a lantern was placed at the dangerous aperture. Several of the passengers declared that they narrowly missed the same horrible death, and they declared that the criminal carelessness of the owners of the wharf-boat and steamer was too palpable to admit of any excuse."

It was not known who the parties were and their identity had not been established at last accounts.

We have heard of several persons whose eyes were so far improved by using the Diamond spectacles for a few weeks, as to make their further use unnecessary. These celebrated glasses are for sale by Ballenger, the jeweler.

The tenacity with which people abide by their own faith in Ayer's Saraparilla is explained by the fact that it is the best blood medicine ever used, and is not equalled in excellence by any new candidate for public favor.

When symptoms of malaria appear in any form, take Ayer's Auge Cure at once to prevent the development of the disease, and continue until health is restored, as it surely will be by the use of this remedy. A cure is warranted in every instance.

"Rev. George Coons, of St. Louis, is the oldest Knight of the Mayville, Ky., Commandery, and in recognition of this the Commandery marched out to his house, 2020 Olive street, serenaded and then formally called upon him.

"Tancered Commandery, No. 25, of Moberly, Mo., furnished an escort to the Tennessee Commandery last night, and the two started to visit the Commandery of Maryville, Cal. They started, but blundered into the rooms of the Mayville Commandery of Kentucky, where
